

Uxbridge Youth Baseball Association - 2010

Rookie Ball Division

- Rookie Ball players are turning 8 and 9 years old in the current year, learning to hit a moving baseball and field the ball effectively.
- The ball is "pitched" by a machine, fed by one of the offensive team's coaches
- Each player receives a maximum of five pitches.
- An inning consists of three outs or a maximum of five runs per team.
- Batters are not allowed to bunt and runners are not allowed to lead off or steal bases.
- There are eight to ten defensive players in the field - up to six infielders and four outfielders - and players are rotated through the available field positions.
- Games are short, not more than four innings.
